

Dr. B.R. Ambedkar National University of Social Sciences

Syllabus-B.A. First Semester

Dr. Ambedkar Thoughts & Philosophy

Social-Origin, development and genesis and development of Castes in India. Untouchables and Untouchability, gradations of Society, Social Harmony, annihilation of caste .

Political-States and minorities, Constitution formation, Partition, Reorganization of States, Democracy, Political economy.

Economic-Administration and finance, Budget, Currencies, Production, Agriculture, Surplus, Saving, Industrialization.

Educational-Learning open to all, Education for Dalits, Adviasis, Women, New Education policy, Theories of Education, Ambedkarian Model of Education.

Religious-Buddhism and other religions, why Dr. Ambedkar embraced Buddhism, National Symbols, Indian culture, Revival movement.

Representation-Ambedkar's thoughts on representation of weaker sections, OBCs, Tribes, Minorities, Ruling class and Minorities, Safeguards for minorities and Dalits, Constitutional democracy, Social and economic democracy.

Struggles-Social struggle, Upliftment of downtrodden, Temple entry, Public tanks rights on public roads, Schools, Entertainment places, Sports, Employment, and Struggle for such rights.

Social Change -Agents of Social change, Political Machinery, Mass Movements, Literacy and Press, Media, Intellectual Class, Bureaucracy, Educationalists.

Philosophy-Buddhist Philosophy and its Revival, Schools of Buddhist Philosophy, Renaissance of Buddhism, Mass Buddhism under Dr. Ambedkar.

