About the Webinar

The aim of the National Webinar is to pay tribute to the mighty valiant great warrior of Mewar Maharana Pratap on his 481th Birth anniversary. This National Webinar is organized under Veer-Putra Mahrana Pratap Shodh Peeth under Defense and Strategic Studies. BRAUSS Mhow is conducting National Webinar in Joint Association and Collaboration with Maharana Pratap Shodh Peeth,MLSU,Udaipur.His sacrifice and dedication to the motherland will always be remembered for his courage, bravery and fighting skills. The 16th century king of Mewar Maharana Pratap , brings to the mind the image of an indefatigable warrior who did not bow before an invader. The inspiring ruler valor was displayed in battle field of Haldighati and the subsequent guerrilla warfare.

The historical roots of strategy and tactics date back to the origins of human warfare and the development of large-scale government and empire. The leadership skills , Center of gravity, decision making, power of diplomacy, Unity of command, clearly defined, attainable objectives are essential to the conduct of warfare. "Strategy and Tactics, however, have been viewed differently in almost every era of history". Tactics is the art of using troops in battle where as strategy is the art of using battles to win the war. The change in the meaning of these terms over time has been basically one of scope as the nature of war and the shape of society have changed as technology has developed.

Objectives of the Webinar

1. To know the importance of Maharana Pratap in the Indian History and Culture as the first native freedom fighter.
